

Welcome to the “Nova”, at 1367 sq. ft. this bungalow is spacious and inviting and will make your visitors feel right at home.

This home features an open concept layout that is known as a California Split Design – with the master retreat on one side of the house and the other two bedrooms on the opposite side of the house. This split creates more privacy while supporting a more modern, open floor plan. This 3 bedroom, 2 bath home is efficiently laid out and has a warm welcoming feel.

Built by Authentic Developments, this home delivers smart modern living.
